

Biography

Dr. Qinfen Lu is a full professor at College of Electrical Engineering, Zhejiang University, China. She is also the Vice-chairman of Linear Motor Institute, Chinese Electrotechnical Society. As IET Fellow and IEEE Senior Member, she is very active in the research of linear and rotary PM and induction motors and control systems, and simulation techniques of traction systems. She has been in charge of over 25 research projects, published over 250 papers, and authorized over 40 Chinese patents.